

What People Are Saying about the Ministry and Writings of E. W. Kenyon and Don Gossett...

E. W. Kenyon's God-given talent to convey truth has never been, in my opinion, equaled.

—T. L. Osborn
Founder, Osborn Foundation

Whenever this man of God writes, I read. Don Gossett has an anointing to stir up and enlarge people's lives. My life is one testimony of his powerful and transforming ministry.

—Dr. Rogé Abergel
Senior Pastor, International Community Church
Los Angeles, California

Don's teachings from the Word have truly revolutionized and shaped our lives and ministry. The victories and successes we have experienced are largely attributed to his impact on our lives. Don Gossett is truly a spiritual father and a friend to us, and we are eternally grateful to him.

INTRODUCTION

Recently, in prayer, I asked, “Lord, how can I help believers to receive Your miracles? I’ve talked to them and read their letters. So many of Your people are hurting. So many believers have unsaved loved ones. Others are stricken with foul diseases, crushed by financial pressures, enduring strife in their marriages, or under some type of satanic attack. How can I help them to receive Your miraculous touch?”

This book is the answer to that prayer.

Several years after Dr. E. W. Kenyon went to be with the Lord, it was my privilege to meet with a group of people who were a part of his church, New Covenant Baptist Church, in Seattle, Washington. One by one, they related to me the wondrous results from Dr. Kenyon’s effective healing ministry.

They shared how Dr. Kenyon had taken the lyrics of the old hymn “He Leadeth Me”¹ and adapted it to become “He Healeth Me.” These former congregants of Dr. Kenyon recalled how they would sing this song over and over, and how people were healed as they sang this confession of the Word. Here are the lyrics, as Dr. Kenyon had altered them:

1. Lyrics by Joseph H. Gilmore (1862) and music by William B. Bradbury (1864).

He Healeth Me

Verse 1

He healeth me, O blessed thought,
What mighty things through Christ are wrought,
Disease and pain have lost their power
And I am healed this very hour.

Chorus

He healeth me, He healeth me,
By His own stripes He healeth me,
In Jesus's name I am set free
For by His stripes He healeth me.

Verse 2

He healeth me, what grace divine,
His very life, thank God, is mine!
His blessed Spirit dwells in me
And makes His Word reality.

Verse 3

He healeth me, the Risen One,
For by His stripes the battle's won,
Disease and sin He put away
And all my burdens bears today.

Verse 4

My lips are filled with praise and song,
For with His strength He makes me strong,
He lives in me, we two are one;
O'er all my foes the victory's won.

It is my privilege, once again, to combine the precious teachings of Dr. Kenyon with my own teaching and experiences in order to share the keys of the Christian life that unlock God's miraculous love and power. For the reader's benefit, the writings of Dr. Kenyon have been signified by his name, while mine are designated by my name.

If Dr. Kenyon and I have had anything in common, it has been the excitement of witnessing God's miraculous hand in powerful works of healing and restoration. These same miracles are available to all believers today if they will devote themselves to learning and practicing these keys of faith and obedience.

PART I
KEYS TO FAITH

GOD IS BIGGER

Don Gossett

If there's one truth you need to keep in mind, it is this: God is bigger than any disease—even cancer!

God answers prayer, first of all, because He loves us. However, He also does so to build our faith, as well as the faith of others who hear our miraculous reports. Remember Jesus's instructions: "Go home to thy friends, and tell them how great things the Lord hath done for thee" (Mark 5:19).

I am reminded of a wonderful miracle that took place in the Australian outback. I had been invited to minister in the Aborigine village of Fitzroy Crossing by some missionaries there. People had traveled there from all around the outback.

Each morning, we had unforgettable prayer meetings at 5:00 a.m. on the riverbank. Also in attendance was the local crocodile population! These services were like a page out of the book of Acts. Great numbers of people were saved, healed, and delivered from demons in the name of Jesus.

One precious Aborigine lady came forward in the prayer line, and the missionary interpreted that this woman had been given up to die with a cancerous breast, as well as another large tumor in her abdomen. As I looked at this woman, compassion poured through me, and a verse came to my spirit: "Whatsoever ye shall ask in my name, that will I do, that the Father may be glorified in the Son" (John 14:13).

I didn't pray powerless words over her cancer. In Jesus's name, I boldly commanded the cancers to die at their roots and declared that the woman was delivered and made whole!

A week later, I had gone on to minister in another village when the missionary from Fitzroy Crossing came with a glorious report. The woman had declared to the missionary, "That man's prayer beat the cancer! Prayer more powerful than cancer!"

These supernatural experiences of answered prayer bring people closer to God Himself. Simply stated, a miracle is the supernatural intervention of God.

A wonderful praise report inspires others to have faith in God, whether it is for salvation, healing, or any other need.

They helped every one his neighbour; and every one said to his brother, Be of good courage. (Isaiah 41:6)

If you are stricken with cancer or any other disease, you may be wondering, Lord, where is my miracle? I can prescribe for you the most powerful therapeutic treatment available: the healing power of prayer.

Another miracle story that is a witness to God's love for sick and suffering people occurred in Madras, India, while I was ministering in an open-air crusade with an estimated seventy-five thousand people in attendance. Just before I went to the platform, one of the ushers came to me and said, "Brother Gossett, there's a lady here who must meet you now. She's standing next to the steps with her daughter and granddaughter."

As I greeted them, the woman said, "Mr. Gossett, I've been waiting eight years for this moment to meet you again. That is when I was diagnosed with a critical heart disease and given no hope of survival. I was bedridden and couldn't even feed myself. The doctors declared that there was nothing they could do. Then, they heard about your crusade and asked my family to take me to your services. They carried me to the grounds on a stretcher. I was lying there in the invalid section when you came and prayed for me. Instantly, the Lord raised me up. I stood there, rejoicing with my weeping family! I was praising Jesus with all my renewed strength. Wonderfully, the Lord baptized me in the Holy Spirit!"

That woman had returned to her job in a hospital, where, today, she serves as its administrator!

Don't reports such as that one stir your heart? Even as I write this, I am aware of the presence of the Holy Spirit. It never grows old to hear of God moving among His people.

It is of the LORD's mercies that we are not consumed, because his compassions fail not. They are new every morning: great is thy faithfulness. (Lamentations 3:22–23)

Truly, God is faithful to His Word and to you. He cares about the deepest challenges of your heart.
