

What People Are Saying About Apostle Guillermo Maldonado and His Books...

My friend Apostle Guillermo Maldonado brilliantly prepares you to be part of God's end-time remnant. It is one minute to midnight. Time is running out!

—Sid Roth
Host, It's Supernatural!

The Holy Spirit gave Apostle Guillermo Maldonado this very powerful revelation of End-Time Shaking and Revival. It is truly a blessed book—a vision of things that are coming to pass to prepare the church for what is taking place in these last days. Apostle Maldonado is greatly anointed by the Holy Spirit to demonstrate the glory of God to this generation. You need to read End-Time Shaking and Revival and get ready for manifestations of God's great power in your church and in your life. You will be blessed by a divine encounter with God's power and glory.

—Prophet Glenda Jackson
Author, Walking in Prophecy, Signs, and Wonders

My friend Apostle Guillermo Maldonado is one of the most important voices in America and beyond. His passion for Jesus is contagious. He speaks with great authority and wisdom as he lives acutely aware of the times in which we are living as the church in this world. I highly recommend this faithful servant of the Lord and the message he carries for us all.

In Jesus Is Coming Soon, Apostle Guillermo Maldonado stresses, “This generation is on the verge of seeing the greatest outpouring of the Holy Spirit and the greatest revival in history. The remnant church is about to enter into the glory of God.... The earth began with the glory of God manifested in creation, and it will end with the glory manifested in the supernatural wonders of the last days, which God is about to reveal.” This book shows how you can participate in God’s greatest revival and see the manifestations of His glory during these momentous last days before the return of Jesus Christ!

I love Guillermo Maldonado and his passion to bring back the urgency of Christ’s return as a central focus of the church. So many Christians are consumed with living out a destiny now without any regard to living for our eternal destiny: being with Jesus where He is. As he shares his perspective, Guillermo always points to eternity, and this causes people to have greater hope than if they were just hearing about how to live out their salvation in this turbulent world. We need the higher focus of our everlasting life motivating us in the now. We also need Jesus to be the center of this eternal focus, and Jesus Is Coming Soon helps to reframe our view while also guiding us like a compass. There are so many different perspectives about how Jesus will return and what that day will look like. Even if your theological perspective differs, I encourage you to read this book to gain new passion and live with eternity in view in your everyday life.

Jesus Is Coming Soon is an important book. Many people are confused about basic biblical truth. The reality is that Jesus is coming soon, just as Apostle Maldonado clearly states. Because of this fact, reaching the world for Christ is one of our central mandates. One simply cannot read this book without finding one's heart burning for lost souls as well as longing for our Savior's return.

Your life has significance because you were created by God with a purpose. One fundamental task we have as believers is to discover our purpose. But another important assignment is to learn how to achieve that purpose. In his book Created for Purpose, Apostle Guillermo Maldonado clearly explains the process that is necessary to make it all the way to the finish line of a successful life!

—Dr. Rod Parsley
Pastor and founder, World Harvest Church, Columbus, OH

Believers sometimes run aimlessly through life with no true compass to guide them in their journey. Not knowing our purpose is one of the worst situations we can be in. But finally, there is no longer an excuse! Apostle Guillermo Maldonado has given us a blueprint for discovering and becoming all that God has created us to be. Created for Purpose will help equip thousands of believers in Christ Jesus to fulfill their God-ordained destiny!

Apostle Guillermo Maldonado is leading an incredibly powerful movement of God across the globe. I've had the honor of witnessing his love of and devotion to the presence of God, which cultivate an atmosphere for the Lord to move in signs, wonders, and miracles. His ministry has touched countless lives with the redemptive power of Jesus!

His new book, Breakthrough Prayer, is written with a spirit of excellence, a mark of everything Maldonado puts his hands to. This book is a representation of his drive and passion for the bride of Christ to be prepared for and partner with what Jesus wants to do on the earth. In its pages, you will not find empty words to recite to God, but rather divine insight and activation into two-way communication with the Father.

FIRST SHAKING, THEN REVIVAL: THE ORDER OF THE END-TIME CYCLE

The Scriptures teach us that there is an order, or sequence, in which God's end-time plans will unfold: shaking will precede revival, and then revival will bring about the greatest harvest of souls for Christ ever witnessed, even as the shaking continues. In God's sovereign purposes, we can't enter into revival without first experiencing shaking. But many people are confused and fearful about the shaking because they don't understand the order or the significance of the end-time cycle.

Seeking guidance from the Holy Spirit, I have written End-Time Shaking and Revival to help the church and the world discern the meaning of the unprecedented shakings happening on earth today and to reveal how we can participate in God's last-days manifestations of glory. I expand on end-times themes I introduced in my previous books, explaining how to respond correctly to divine shakings, be continuously filled with the Spirit, participate in the worldwide revival, and move in the supernatural.

During the end-times revival, we will be exposed to various facets of the power of the Holy Spirit, including growing manifestations of His light and intensity—the revelation of God's truth and holiness—along with signs and wonders. Revival will simultaneously erupt in different places around the world, creating tremendous global impact. In the final part of the revival, we will see the beginning of God's judgment on the world. Then Jesus, in His glory, will appear for His remnant church, and the world will undergo the great tribulation. (See Matthew 24:21.) These events will lead to what the Bible calls "the fullness of the times" (Ephesians 1:10)—the culminating events of Jesus's second coming, His reign on earth during the millennium, and the final judgment of those who have not believed in God and His Son Jesus.

END-TIME SHAKING

As the Bible tells us, no one knows the day or the hour when Jesus will appear for His church (see Matthew 24:36), because His arrival will be sudden, abrupt, and when we least expect it: "For you yourselves know perfectly that the day of the Lord so comes as a thief in the night" (1 Thessalonians 5:2). However, as I indicated above, we can analyze the order of these events that will culminate in Jesus's second coming to earth.

First, I want to establish this fundamental truth: all the disturbances that are happening around us, and that are causing people so much consternation, are signs from God pointing to the coming of the Lord. As we draw closer to the end, we will see these signs intensify and become more frequent and evident.

Second, we know that God Himself is behind the shaking because He told us through His prophet Haggai, and in other biblical passages, that it would occur:

For thus says the LORD of hosts: "Once more (it is a little while) I will shake heaven and earth, the sea and dry land; and I will shake all nations, and they shall come to the Desire of All Nations, and I will fill this temple with glory," says the LORD of hosts. "The silver is Mine, and the gold is Mine," says the LORD of hosts. "The glory of this latter temple shall be greater than the former," says the LORD of hosts. "And in this place I will give peace," says the LORD of hosts.

(Haggai 2:6–9)

Prophecy in the Bible gives us revelation regarding three groups: Israel, the church, and the world. God loves the people of each group, and they all have a part in His plan for the human race at the end of time. He chose Israel to be a priesthood to the world, and He adopted the gentiles into His family with the coming of Jesus. However, those who have rejected Him entirely—from both groups—are called “the world” because they are living contrary to His divine purposes.

It is important to understand that the above prophecy from Haggai refers to all three groups, but in different ways. Each group is processed in a distinct manner during shakings. The shaking of the church is different from the shaking of Israel or the world. The shaking of the church is for purification, the shaking of Israel is for salvation, and the shaking of the world is for judgment—and, if people yield to God, for repentance. Each group will experience shaking, and the results will bring glory to the Lord. The remnant church will be filled with God’s glory and demonstrate His signs and wonders, the Jews will begin to acknowledge their Messiah in greater numbers, and many people in the world will recognize that God alone has the answers to their dilemmas and distress.

PERIL IN THE COSMOS

As the end-time shaking progresses, there will be peril in the cosmos. We read in the book of Isaiah, “Therefore I will shake the heavens, and the earth will move out of her place, in the wrath of the LORD of hosts and in the day of His fierce anger” (Isaiah 13:13). God has shown me that there will be turmoil in the cosmos, and this revelation is confirmed by what He has previously announced through His Word. In this century, wars between nations will be particularly fought in outer space. Russia, China, and other nations appear to be arming with the intent of conducting space warfare against the United States’ military and communications satellites.¹ In 2019, the United States formed the U.S. Space Force (USSF) “in order to protect U.S. and allied interests in space and to provide space capabilities to the joint force,”² recognizing that if it can successfully protect its satellite capability from attack by other nations, it will maintain its military strength on the earth.³

3. Chris Bowlby, “Could a War in Space Really Happen?” BBC News, December 19, 2015, <https://www.bbc.com/news/magazine-35130478>.

But warfare against satellites isn't the only peril involving the cosmos. NASA studies are predicting that in 2029, an asteroid called Apophis will pass very close to the earth, less than 20,000 miles, although calculations in 2004 predicted that it would collide with our planet.⁴ The asteroid was named Apophis in reference to an "ancient Egyptian spirit of evil, darkness and destruction."⁵ It will pass closer than the distance of some satellites, and since it is still a number of years off, it's not clear whether the earth is fully out of danger of impact. Recently, we have seen the shaking of nature and other arenas on earth, although we have not yet seen it in space. We may see a preview of this before the rapture of the church.

The prophet Thomas Horn—who predicted the resignation of Pope Benedict XVI⁶—recently had a night vision in which he saw what looked like a giant, fiery dragon moving like a snake and coming straight down to earth. Suddenly, his perspective changed, and he was able to see from above and discover that this apparent dragon was actually an asteroid moving and shining in the sunlight. His perspective switched back to earth again, and he was on a mountain with thousands and thousands of other people who were running for their lives, screaming in desperation, and asking God to save them. Next, he saw that giant, burning rock enter the atmosphere and break into pieces that fell in different places. The earth began to shake violently, and it sounded like the world was coming apart. No one could stay standing. An enormous section of the asteroid had fallen into the sea, causing a huge tsunami with waves hundreds of feet tall that flooded over the top of the mountain.

Thomas said that, after this, what felt like large hands lifted him up into space. Looking down, he saw the seawater boiling, volcanoes erupting, and tremendous hurricanes breaking out. When he woke up, he nearly fell out of bed because the vision had been so vivid and had felt so real.

As he recovered and began to write down what he had seen, it was if he heard a voice, whether out loud or in his head, saying a name: *Apophis*⁷. In Revelation 8:10–11, the Bible speaks of a star called Wormwood that will fall on a third of the waters and cause many people to die:

Then the third angel sounded: and a great star fell from heaven, burning like a torch, and it fell on a third of the rivers and on the springs of water. The name of the star is Wormwood. A third of the waters became wormwood, and many men died from the water, because it was made bitter.

In the last days, asteroids will fall on the earth and make our planet move off its axis. When the shaking of the cosmos occurs, all communication signals will be interrupted. “Immediately after the tribulation of those days the sun will be darkened, and the moon will not give its light; the stars will fall from heaven, and the powers of the heavens will be shaken” (Matthew 24:29). The tribulation that Jesus refers to here is not the great tribulation at the end of the age but rather the shaking that precedes the coming end-time revival. Famine, pestilence, pandemics, plagues, floods, fires, tsunamis, hurricanes, earthquakes, and much more will occur at the same time. John described all this in a vision he recorded in Revelation:

So I looked, and behold, a pale horse. And the name of him who sat on it was Death, and Hades followed with him. And power was given to them over a fourth of the earth, to kill with sword, with hunger, with death, and by the beasts of the earth. When He opened the fifth seal, I saw under the altar the souls of those who had been slain for the word of God and for the testimony which they held. And they cried with a loud voice, saying, “How long, O Lord, holy and true, until You judge and avenge our blood on those who dwell on the earth?” Then a white robe was given to each of them; and it was said to them that they should rest a little while longer, until both the number of their fellow servants and their brethren, who would be killed as they were, was completed.

(Revelation 6:8–11)

SIGNS OF THE END TIMES

Today, this shaking is already happening before our eyes. For example, as I write this book, we are experiencing one of the greatest pandemics in the last hundred years, COVID-19. The website Worldometer records that, as of August 6, 2021, there were over 202 million cases and nearly 4.3 million deaths.⁸

In 2020, the United Nations declared that the plague of locusts affecting Africa was “the most dangerous migratory epidemic in the world.” These insects left millions of people in a food emergency.⁹ The brush fires in Australia during 2019–2020 as a result of climate change were of a magnitude that was not expected until the next century. Entire ecosystems disappeared under the flames. Between July 2019 and February 2020, 37,500 square miles (97,000 square kilometers) of forest were burned.¹⁰ Additional environmental, social, economic, political, and personal shaking are occurring and will occur in the world.

THE SIGNS OF CHRIST’S APPEARING ARE SHAKING, REVIVAL, AND THE HARVESTING OF SOULS.

END-TIME REVIVAL AND HARVEST

During a shaking, God introduces the Holy Spirit to His people in a greater way. He pours His the Spirit onto those who fervently seek His infilling. The outpouring of the Holy Spirit in the end times will be more powerful than that which occurred at the beginning of the church. It will be the prelude to Christ’s appearing because, as I mentioned previously, it will produce the greatest harvest of souls of all time. That final revival will empower the reapers—the remnant bride of Christ that God will send out from churches throughout the world—to reach the lost with signs, wonders, and miracles of all kinds. The new believers in Christ from that final harvest will be like the new wineskins into which new wine can be poured, which Jesus talked about in one of His parables in reference to the infilling of the Holy Spirit. (See, for example, Mark 2:22.) All that these believers do for the Lord will spring from a new filling with the Holy Spirit resulting from repentance and transformation. We will discuss this topic further in a coming chapter. When they go out and proclaim the gospel, they won't do it according to an intellectual approach. Instead, they will speak what the Spirit tells them to in each instance. The Lord has promised to do new things (see Revelation 21:5), things never before seen. And I'm sure He will!

These chaotic end times, which will be filled with unresolvable problems and crises, will lead many people to seek God. Their desperate search will bring about the final revival, with a glorious manifestation of God's Spirit.

Who will lead the people during the end-time revival? They will be led by the apostles and prophets of the remnant church. Apostles and prophets are custodians of the supernatural; therefore, they will be forerunners of the spiritual awakening in the last days. This is a major reason why the Holy Spirit has reestablished these two ministries during the last thirty or forty years, why He has restored honor and respect to these leadership roles. (See Ephesians 4:11–12.) He is empowering apostles and prophets for the task they must perform in the final days. Their assignment is to charge the spiritual atmosphere of the earth with God's glory and to awaken people's hearts to turn to God and enter into a supernatural lifestyle.

THE FATHERS OF EVERY MOVEMENT OF GOD HAVE ALWAYS BEEN THE APOSTLES AND PROPHETS.

Dear reader, as I emphasized earlier, there can be no effective revival without a shaking. The shaking will prepare the nations of the earth to receive the gospel. Unless people experience shaking, they are often unable to recognize the hand of God on earth or their need for Him. It is in the midst of crises that people seek refuge, comfort, and salvation in God. That is why, in this end-time cycle, we will continue to see shakings, followed by a revival that will ignite people's hearts, bringing millions to genuine repentance as they surrender their lives to the Lord Jesus.

I know people who, because of the shaking we are now experiencing—such as the coronavirus pandemic, financial crises, and so forth—have reconnected with the church through the Internet, simply by viewing online services. Before the shaking, they didn't want to hear from God; today, they have returned to the church because the signs reminded them of what is written in the Bible, and they know that there is no other way out besides God.

IF A NATION IS NOT SHAKEN OR BROKEN,
IT WILL NOT HEAR THE GOSPEL.

AN URGENT MANDATE

After Jesus carries away His church in the rapture, the intense shaking of the great tribulation will come. During that time, people will still have a chance to receive salvation. However, being a Christian will cost many people their lives, because the Antichrist will be ruling over the earth, persecuting anyone who confesses the name of Jesus. (See, for example, Revelation 13:16–17.) Therefore, before the final shaking, the church must be dedicated to, and actively proclaiming, the crucified, risen, and victorious Christ. We must bring the gospel to a perplexed world desperate for solutions. Afterward, there will no longer be a church on earth that preaches the gospel because the bride of Christ will be in heaven with the Lord. “Then I saw another angel flying in the midst of heaven, having the everlasting gospel to preach to those who dwell on the earth—to every nation, tribe, tongue, and people” (Revelation 14:6).

THE SUPREME TASK OF THE CHURCH IS THE EVANGELIZATION OF THE WORLD.

The question is, are you telling others about the coming of the Lord while there is still time? Are you preaching the resurrection of Christ? Are you proclaiming the true gospel, or are you presenting mere motivational messages? The message of the coming of the Lord is what the enemy fears the most; therefore, in this time when the devil has risen up with all his weapons to block people from salvation and the supernatural, our message must be even more potent. It must include the power of Christ’s resurrection, because when we preach about the King of Kings, the devil scatters.

THE PREACHING OF JESUS’S RETURN INSTILLS THE FEAR OF GOD IN PEOPLE AND LEADS THE CHURCH TO LIVE IN RIGHTEOUSNESS.

THE GLORY OF THE END TIMES

In the history of the church, we have seen the anointing of the Holy Spirit operating through men and women of God, particularly as they use their spiritual gifts. But we haven’t consistently seen the glory of the Father sovereignly manifested, except in isolated cases where churches either are experiencing revival or have experienced revival. Yet, in these end times, we will witness sovereign acts of God. This will happen when we enter into His glory; and to do this, we must walk in the power of Christ’s resurrection.

Sadly, in recent decades, the church has lost credibility and given a bad testimony to the world due to its religiosity, spiritual numbness, and lack of integrity. Because people do not trust the church anymore, God Himself will act sovereignly to demonstrate His power and mercy. Again,

His power will not be seen mainly through anointing (God using a person). Instead, God will sovereignly reveal Himself in a new realm of miracles; He will interrupt the normal course of events and break into the routine of church services to manifest His glory. People will stop looking to human beings for help and will have a supernatural, direct, and glorious experience with God the Father and His Son Jesus Christ. And it is the Holy Spirit who will lead us into God's presence.

As the true remnant of the church that seeks the Holy Spirit with hunger and passion for revival, we need to operate in our priestly anointing (see, for example, Revelation 1:6) and turn to prayer and fasting. We must come to know the person of the Holy Spirit so that He may lead us into the presence of the Father. Only then will we be the glorious church that Christ comes to seek. (See Ephesians 5:25–27.)

AT THE HEIGHT OF THE END-TIME REVIVAL, WE WILL SEE THE GLORY OF GOD.

I want to expand on this point because many believers have not fully understood it. Today, what we need even more than faith is the manifestation of God's glory. Jesus's resurrection from the dead did not require people's faith, because no one on earth had enough faith for it. Instead, He was raised to life "by the glory of the Father" (Romans 6:4). Jesus died bearing all the sins of mankind—from the beginning of human history to the end of time. The weight of carrying all that evil was horribly overwhelming, and the sentence of death for humanity's sin was irrevocable. But Jesus's victory over sin and death, and His subsequent explosive resurrection, became the portal through which power returned to the church. They are the source from which we can receive supernatural authority and provision today to proclaim the gospel of the kingdom with demonstrations of power, as the first apostles did: "And with great power the apostles gave witness to the resurrection of the Lord Jesus. And great grace was upon them all" (Acts 4:33).

Christ's resurrection is a spiritual portal through which the supernatural power of God flows into the church. This portal remains open where the resurrection continues to be preached and where God continues to manifest His power. In essence, every time we preach about the power of the resurrection, we exalt the glory of God and cause it to be manifest in our midst.

In these end times, we will see various spiritual portals open in the United States and around the world. Some will encompass entire regions; others will be limited to certain churches, families, or individuals. We will see various aspects of the Holy Spirit's power demonstrated in those regions, churches, and people, which will testify to what God is sovereignly saying and doing at that time. We will see portals of salvation, healing, wealth, personal transformation, miracles, signs, wonders, and the resurrection of the dead. All these supernatural works will bring spiritual revival. In other words, we will see an all-inclusive supernatural movement.

THE FINAL TESTIMONY WILL BE THE PREACHING OF THE GOSPEL WITH THE DEMONSTRATION OF THE POWER OF THE RESURRECTION IN THE NOW.

Therefore, in the final shaking—which, as I mentioned previously, will occur simultaneously with the revival—the glory of God will be revealed to the church. Jesus is coming back for a glorious church; this means that, in the midst of the shaking, the church will dwell in glory, revived by the Spirit of God! We will know that Jesus's appearance is imminent when we see the world continue to be shaken, the church enter into revival, and souls by the millions come to the feet of Christ in a great spiritual harvest.

THE FINAL SHAKING WILL LEAD PEOPLE TO RETURN TO PRAYER FOR REVIVAL.

THE COMING OF THE LORD

As for the manner in which the Lord will return, the Bible tells us that Jesus's appearing—the rapture—will occur first, followed later by His second coming. The Son of God will appear in order to take His bride, but He will come again to rule the earth during the millennium, and then to judge the world. “I charge you therefore before God and the Lord Jesus Christ, who will judge the living and the dead at His appearing [second coming] and His kingdom” (2 Timothy 4:1).

As we close chapter 1, I must emphasize that the remnant bride will be made up of those who have allowed God to process them during the shaking—those who have repented of their sins and spiritual slumber, humbled themselves before the Lord, and committed themselves fully to God, those who are continually seeking to be transformed by the Holy Spirit. I address this subject in depth in my book Jesus Is Coming Soon.

It is not wise to wait until the Lord takes His church in the rapture to begin seeking Him. Today is the day to seek God in fasting, prayer, worship, and obedience!

Seek the LORD while He may be found, call upon Him while He is near. (Isaiah 55:6)

END-TIME TESTIMONIES

Joel is originally from California, USA, and he had been addicted to drugs and alcohol from the time he was a young teenager. A lack of identity and purpose in his life caused him to make many mistakes. However, he attended a revival conducted by King Jesus Ministry, and this led him to experience God at such a level that his life was totally transformed, to the point that he decided to move to Miami to be a part of our ministry.

I grew up in a loving home with my parents and four other siblings, but I felt alone and without identity. My father was an excellent provider, but he was an alcoholic. I drank my first beer at the age of twelve just to see why he drank. At thirteen, I became addicted to marijuana. After that, my life became a mess, and no one could help me. My parents tried everything to save me, but the more they tried, the more I rebelled. They even took me to a “healer” who subjected me to a horrible ritual.

When I was fifteen, I joined a gang. At seventeen, I met a girl, and, after three months, she became pregnant. That shocked me, but I married her because I wanted to be a good father to my baby. Unfortunately, we only lasted three months together. When I lost my family, I fell deeper into drugs and alcohol. I felt there was no way out for me!

Three years later, by some miracle, I returned to live with my wife, since we had never officially divorced. I knew that our restoration had begun. We started attending a church in California, where I gave my life to Christ. I believed that my problems would disappear as if by magic, but, instead, a terrible spiritual struggle began. One night, after my wife came home from work, we began to argue. The argument escalated into a physical fight, and I ended up in jail for domestic violence. My wife was determined to divorce me, but then she learned that she was expecting our second child. When I was released from jail after three weeks, she decided to stay with me.

A few months later, our pastors gave us tickets to a King Jesus Ministry conference in Miami. I had never been to a conference before, and I had great expectations! I wanted change! That week in Miami, I experienced God’s presence like never before, and the spiritual revival transformed me. There, we discovered that God had a purpose for our lives. When we returned to California, we began following King Jesus meetings on YouTube, and we grew spiritually. Then, God performed a financial miracle, enabling us to move to Miami. Today, we live in the midst of the revival at King Jesus Ministry, serving the Lord. I was freed from all addictions, and our marriage was restored. We have also been blessed with a business of our own. Now, we are part of this great supernatural movement, and I thank God for all His blessings.

Jose Ramon from the United States began to believe God for a creative miracle when his wife was unable to conceive. In 2016, after Jose made a covenant with God, his wife became pregnant. Yet in the midst of their joy over this miracle, the baby was diagnosed with Down syndrome. About that time, our ministry was hosting its annual Apostolic and Prophetic Conference (CAP), and during this event, there is always a very powerful spiritual movement. Jose explains how they received a miracle:

We wanted to have children but weren't able to. During the Apostolic and Prophetic Conference (CAP) in 2016, we made a covenant with God to have a baby, and He did the miracle! Within a year, my wife became pregnant. However, at six months, the doctor told us that there was an 80 percent chance the child would have Down syndrome. We continued to pray and believe for what God had promised in that covenant. The doctor scheduled an appointment with us that coincided with the dates of CAP 2017. He told us that we had two options: to keep the baby or abort it. If we kept it, we would have to take classes to learn how to care for it.

We decided to have our baby, knowing that God would fulfill His promise. We left the appointment and attended the CAP event, asking the Lord to heal our baby. In particular, I asked the Lord for a confirmation. During the last session, while the manifest presence of God was ministering to our hearts, a boy of about twelve years of age came up to me, hugged me, and said, "Don't worry." That message was wonderful and so encouraging! After three weeks, my wife had another checkup, and, to the glory of God, the doctor confirmed that everything was fine. The child was healthy! He was developing normally! Today, we give all the glory to God for what He did and for His faithfulness. Although we had tribulations, He was faithful to His promise, and we received our breakthrough at CAP. He has brought revival in so many areas of our lives, and now we can enjoy His promises fulfilled.
